BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Recommends that the Lady Apothecary at Shimoga may be exempted from payment of rent for the quarters provided for her

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The recommendations are sanctioned, tending to create a precedent favor of all lady apothecaries provided with quarters. The resolutions of the District Board of Shimoga and the Shimoga Municipal Council in support of the recommendation have not been left.

misquestion may be discussed, after first orders are received in the matter of granting house rent allowances to Dentist Surgeons. But as such orders cannot have retrospective effect, unless specially directed,
it is a point for orders when the lady applicant may not be asked to pay rent at ~~present~~ the time the disposal of that question.
If orders are passed in the connected file, favorable to Dentist Surgeons, then asking case will have been made out for their lady applicants also.

Encl no 173-13-576

Proceedings of an ordinary meeting of the Shimoga Town Municipal Council held in the Town Hall on the 27th June 1914.

Senior Surgeon's letter No. 5154 dated 28th May 1914 regarding the question of providing the Lady Apothecary at Shimoga with rent free quarters.

Resolved that the Municipal Council is of opinion that the Lady Apothecary should be provided with rent free quarters near the premises of the Women's Hospital, but that it does not appear that the Council is in any way affected by this, as the rent, if levied would be collected by the Public Works
